Dear Anne,

Just a note to thank you for the fascinating and hair-raising hour I spent, just before Thanksgiving, with your banking neighbor. If half of what he says can be confirmed, we haven't begun to understand our problems there. I look forward to talking to you about that when I see you.

That was quite a tour de force you made on the history of PFIAB in the Bubble out here and I'd appreciate it if I could have a copy of it for my private archives if it is unclassified, and I guess it is.

STAT

Yours,

Bill
